Robert Chevillon

The Chevillon brothers (Bertrand & Denis) have made father Robert proud, we would say. The vineyard produces a stunning collection of Bourgogne & Premier Cru wines from old vines across eight different 1er parcels, all displaying distinct structure and character, of which the top-tier wines rival those of Grand Cru status. Thus, until the appellation authorities realise this, we are seeing great wines worthy of Grand Cru at Premier Cru prices. Chevillon wines have power, structure, texture and elegance all at once, with each parcel possessing its own uniqueness.

Clos Rougeard

Almost every three star restaurant in the world fights for the minute allocation of the wines made by the brothers Bernard (Nady) and Jean-Louis (Charlie) Foucault. Their estate, Clos Rougeard, produces red's made 100% of Cabernet Franc and only one white from 100% Chenin Blanc called Brèze (a chenin in a class of its own, produced over a one hectare plot) across 10 hectares of vines in the Saumur region of Loire Valley, all organically managed. The wines are bottled after 18 to 24 months in oak without fining or filtration. The leading wine, Le Bourg, going into new oak, one hectare plot and 75 year old vines. Les Poyeux, slightly further out, off of 45 year old vines. These wines, this producer, is magnificent, to say the least.
